"Not my will, LORD, but that Thine be done!"
It was Thy will, LORD, but that Thine be done!"
It was Thy will, LORD, but that Thine be done!"

I pray this ear - nest - ly, Just as my Sa - vior, ere He died, Thy will that called and chose, And yet I have, for man - y years,

Prayed in Geth - sem - en - e. He knew the an - guish that would come Thy grac - ious plan op - posed. Up - on my own de - sires have I

When suf - fring in my stead, And yet for me, He turned not from In - sis - ted fool - ish - ly, But now with shame con - fess this sin,

His Fath - er's wish, but said: "Not My will, Lord, and hum - bly pray to Thee: Not my will LORD, but Thine be done! But, if it could please Thee, Al - low this cup but Thine be done: All bat - tles, chan - ges, pains! For I know Thou of bit - ter wrath To be re - moved from Me!" But Christ en - dured thru them wilt pour Thy love on me like rain. I glad - ly take the rug - ged cross, And while He trem - bled, shed - ding blood, Sub - mis - sive - ly, up my own cross Un - til the vic - tor - y is won. With all my heart
