

Why Do The Peoples?

Based on Psalm 2

Inspired by God

Adapted by Nathan A. Wright

Psalm 2

VATER UNSER 8.8.8.8.8.8.

Geistliche Lieder, 1539

Why do the peop - les, deep in thought, Vain - ly dev - ise an
The One en - throned in Heav - en laughs; At their stu - pid - it - I'll now pro - claim the Lord's dec - ree: "Christ has be - come My There - fore, O rul - ers, as you laud, Be caut - ious ser - vants ev - il plot? A - gainst the Lord Je - ho - vah and y He scoffs, Then dec - lares re - bukes - on them sharp, Heir," said He. "I have or - dained He should pos - sess of your God. Lest His wrath should de - stroy you, kiss

His A noin ted they take their stand. "Let us fling off God's In fur - y hor - rif - ies their hearts. "Up - on Zi - on, My Earth's man - y na - tions, east and west; With ir - on rod rule The Son of God with trem - bling lips. All those are blest for - chains," they say, "And cast these weak fet - ters a - way!

hill," roars He, "I have in - stalled My King hol - y.
kings and queens; Like clay smash them to smith - er - eens.
e - ver - more Who take re - fuge in God the Lord.